LB 28, 215, 423, 552A
LR 23

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Senator. You have heard the motion. All those in favor of advancing the bill vote aye, opposed vote nay. The motion before you is the advancement of LB 28. Please record your vote. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 30 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to advance LB 28.

PRESIDENT: LB 28 is advanced. The Chair would announce that Senator Sieck has guests in the north balcony this morning. They are 26 third and fourth grade students from St. John's Elementary School in Seward, Nebraska. We are very glad to have you here to view the lawmaking procedure of the Nebraska Legislature. If you will stand and be recognized. Welcome. Next we have LB 423.

CLERK: Mr. President, right before that, if I might, Senators Warner and Beutler would like to print amendments to 215. (See page 996 of the Legislative Journal.)

Senator Hefner offers A bill, 552A. (Read for the first time by title as found on page 996 of the Legislative Journal.)

LR 23CA is reported correctly engrossed. That is offered by Senator Hall as Chair.

Mr. President, LB 423 was a bill offered by the Government Committee and signed by its members. (Read title.) It was first read on January 18, referred to Government, advanced to General File, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Dave Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, this is the first of a couple of smaller bills by the Government Committee on matters of county interest. This one has to do with the incarceration of a county official and says that while that person is incarcerated, the county board can turn the running of the office over to their deputy. And that is because you don't want to have county officers trying to run their shops from the jail house. Secondly, it also provides that if there is the conviction of a particular class of misdemeanor, that that may be...if that misdemeanor relates to their official duties, that that
